

“I want a job – How do I get one?”

This series of three classes are designed for individuals with paralysis who are interested in seeking employment or learning about their options regarding employment.

The first class will focus on how employment may impact an individual's benefits, Assistive Technology available for ease of accessing computers, and an opportunity to network with others with paralysis, who have obtained or are seeking employment. This class will be presented on three different occasions with the first class on September 28, 2013.

The second and third class will cover topics such as identifying transferable skills to develop a resume and cover letter, online job search and application process, disclosing a disability, and requesting reasonable accommodations. It is not required to attend the first class in order to attend the second or third. Additional class dates and locations are yet to be announced.

If you or someone you know is looking for a job, but don't know where to start, then this is an opportunity for you.

The first class will be held at Easter Seals Camp Sunnyside on September 28, 2013, from 1:00PM-3:00PM. A light snack will be provided. Please contact Kim Karwal at (Phone) 515-309-2394 (TTY) 515-289-4069 or (email) kkarwal@eastersealsia.org to complete the registration process or request more information.

Limited availability: Registration deadline is September 13, 2013 for the first class.

-This project is funded in part by through the Christopher and Dana Reeve Foundation.
